ADDITIONAL SUGGESTIONS FOR BEGINNING THE ANNOUNCEMENT:

Math/Science Emphasis: Imagine a world without skateboards or computers, without compact disks or space travel, without vaccines for measles and polio, or antibiotics such as penicillin. People are alive today who remember that world. It wasn't so long ago. The world we live in, the world we take for granted, is ours thanks to science and mathematics—and thanks to science and mathematics teachers who positively influenced the lives of their students. _Have you ever thought of becoming a science or math teacher? <Continue with Announcement Script.>

Quotes to Introduce Announcement:

- Bill Cosby said, "If you want to know who really molds our children's future, it's not the politicians, the movie stars, or corporate leaders. It's our teachers." <Continue with Announcement Script.>
- Henry Brooks Adams, a historian and the grandson of John Quincy Adams, said, "A teacher affects eternity he can never tell, where his influence stops." Would you like to help change the future? <Continue with Announcement Script.>
- K. Patricia Cross, a mathematician and educator, said that "The task of the excellent teacher is to stimulate "apparently ordinary" people to unusual effort. The tough problem is not in identifying winners: it is in making winners out of ordinary people." <Continue with Announcement Script.>
