Events and Upcoming Deadlines

Would you like to join our mailing list? Please visit bit.ly/CCT_Interest to receive our monthly newsletter.

Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, we understand students may have difficulty completing the admissions requirements for our credential programs. Regardless, we want to encourage you to apply to our programs! Please contact us if you would like to learn more!

Exploring Critical Issues in Education:

How To Talk To Kids About The Riots At The U.S. Capitol

Many young people—particularly Youth of Color—across the country are finding this moment extremely scary. Parents, caregivers and teachers can help them cope.

link to article: https://tinyurl.com/whitedomesticterrorism

Happy New Year & Welcome to Spring 2021!

Meet our New Student Assistant, Kimberly Ho

Virtual Academic Advising!

Don't forget to schedule a virtual academic advising appointment with the Center for Careers in Teaching!

Visit our website to learn how you can schedule a virtual advising appointment with our office: https://tinyurl.com/futureteacheradvising

My name is Kimberly Ho and I am currently a freshman at CSUF with a major in Child and Adolescent Studies. I hope to pursue a career working with lower elementary school students, because I believe teachers have the power to cultivate a positive learning environment where children can learn to build knowledge and character. One fun fact about myself is that my favorite flowers are carnations!

Creative Art Workshop Series

Join Mrs. Kristine Quinn, M.S. Elementary and Bilingual Education Faculty, to engage in hands on art lessons that can be taught to your elementary students.

Making Art Accessible: "Stay at home" and do art!

Creating art materials with things around the house. Teachers let's use our creativity and our resources as we help students at home learn new techniques and discover their ingenuity without traditional art supplies.

Register by using the following link: https://tinyurl.com/rsvpart1

College of Education Scholarships!

The College of Education is now accepting applications for the 2021-2022 scholarship cycle. There are several financial aid resources to help make earning your credential or degree in education more affordable, so please be sure to take advantage of this opportunity!

You can find the scholarship applications here: https://tinyurl.com/coescholarships1