INTRODUCING OUR NEWEST TEAM MEMBERS

 peça

Lilly Quinones: Graduation Specialist

Lilianna Quinones (Lilly) is our newest adviser joining the CCT Team in February! She holds a Bachelor's degree in Sociology and Chicano Studies from University of California Los Angeles. Prior to joining our team, she was a Retention Specialist/Advisor at the Academic Advising Center (AAC) here at CSUF.

Natalie Vargas: Student Assistant

Natalie Vargas is pursuing a degree in English and hopes to become a high school English teacher. In her free time, she enjoys reading and writing. Her favorite genres are mystery, fiction, and modern poetry.

ACADEMIC ADVISING

As we approach fall registration, remember that our services are offered both online and in-person. You can meet with an advisor to discuss course options for fall, learn about the teaching pathway, and make sure that you are on track to pursuing a career in education! Click here to see how you can make an appointment with a Center for Careers in Teaching advisor.
FUTURE TEACHER PEER MENTORS

Planning to apply to a CSUF credential program? Meet with our Peer Mentors! They have first-hand experience with our credential programs. Learn about what the credential application process is like and what to expect in the program.

This resource is available for a limited time! Join a mentor’s Zoom room during their office hours or click here to complete the interest form!

EXPLORING CRITICAL ISSUES IN EDUCATION

Stories of Impact - Men Of Color in Education

"Once I chose my career, I wasn’t sure where to start. I turned to the Center for Careers in Teaching at Cal State Fullerton and learned about the Men of Color in Education program. It intrigued me that there were other male educators with whom I could converse and connect with in the field."

-Jonathan Oseguera
