CELEBRATING TEACHERS! END OF SEMESTER & CONGRATS GRADS

May is always a busy month full of celebrating! It is also the month in which we celebrate teachers. If you missed our table on Titan Walk on May 2nd, please take some time to thank a teacher for National Teacher Appreciation Day and Teacher Appreciation Week!

May is also a time to celebrate the end of the academic year. Finals are around the corner and we know you will finish strong! If you are a continuing student and have not met with an advisor from the Center for Careers in Teaching to plan for fall, then check out page 2 to learn more.

2022-2023 GRADUATES, we are so proud of you! You have worked hard and now it’s time to celebrate and take the next step in your journey. If you haven't applied to a CSUF Credential Program for Fall 2023, then you're in luck! All three credential programs have extended their deadlines! Visit page 2 for more details.

IN THIS EDITION, YOU WILL FIND...

- News story: "Exploring Critical Issues in Education" (p.2)
- Academic Advising Information (p.2)
- Credential programs deadlines extended! (p.2)
- Center for Careers in Teaching upcoming events (p.3)
- Peer Mentor Opportunity (p.4)
- College of Education's Career Specialist (p.4)
- College of Education's first undergraduate major (p.5)
- Center for Careers in Teaching Feedback Form (p.5)
- Resource Hub: Opportunities for future teachers (p.6)
EXPLORING CRITICAL ISSUES IN EDUCATION

Social Justice Issues, Anti-Bias Teaching Focus of Education Conference

“My experience within the credential program has empowered me as a social justice educator by equipping me with tools and resources that I will use throughout my career.”

-Gentile, a first-generation college graduate who wants to teach fifth grade.

Click here to read more!

ACADEMIC ADVISING REMINDER

As we approach registration, remember that our services are offered both online and in-person. Meet with an advisor to learn more about the teaching pathway, and make sure that you are on track to meet your goals! Click here to make an appointment with a Center for Careers in Teaching advisor.

CREDENTIAL PROGRAMS DEADLINES EXTENDED!

Gentile, a first-generation college graduate who wants to teach fifth grade.

We are still accepting applications for Fall 23 Multiple Subject Credential Program. Please submit your applications through CSU Apply.

ATTENTION!

The application deadline for the education specialist programs was extended to July 1st!

The Multiple Subject, Single Subject, and Special Education credential programs have extended their application deadlines! Click on the image above for the credential program that you are interested in to learn more.
UPCOMING FUTURE TEACHER EVENTS

REGISTER HERE for the MCE End-of-Semester Hangout

REGISTER HERE for the TFT End-of-Semester Celebration

Interested in our Titan Future Teacher Program and getting more information about future events? Click here to learn more!

Interested in the Men of Color in Education (MCE) Program and getting more information about future events? Click here to learn more!
Have you ever wanted to have your resume and/or cover letter reviewed by a professional? The College of Education has our very own Career Specialist, Sophia Moriel, who will be hosting drop-in career advising every Wednesday from 4:30-6:00pm via Zoom or at the Center in EC-379! Click here to visit the Career Specialist website!

Planning to apply to a CSUF credential program? We want to invite you to meet with our Peer Mentors. They have firsthand experience with our credential programs. Learn more about what the credential application process is like and what to expect in the program! Sign up today to learn more about their office hours. This resource is available for a limited time! Join a mentor's Zoom room during their office hours or click here to complete the interest form.
COLLEGE OF EDUCATION'S FIRST UNDERGRADUATE MAJOR

Spread the word! The College of Education now offers a Bachelor of Arts in Urban Learning! The major will focus on preparing students to become educators who are committed to providing a just, equitable, and inclusive education in schools. Although the major is open to everyone, the curriculum is primarily for those who are interested in becoming elementary or special education teachers.

Learn more here

CENTER FOR CAREERS IN TEACHING: FEEDBACK FORM

The Center for Careers in teaching is looking for your feedback! As we reflect on this last semester, we want you to tell us how we did. All feedback will be used to improve the space, our website, and our social media posts. It's a short form, but your responses would be extremely helpful as we plan new ways to improve! Click the link below to start.

bit.ly/CCTFeedbackForm
RESOURCE HUB
Click on a Bubble to See More of the Resources Provided for Future Teachers at CSUF!

Future Teacher Resources

- Test Prep & Workshops
- CSUF Course Recommendations
- Job Opportunities for Future Teachers
- Funding Opportunities