CBEST & CSET DIGITAL LIBRARY!

The Center for Careers in Teaching has put together a digital library to provide students with access to study materials in electronic formats. Please complete our request form (linked below) if you would like to request access to the CBEST & CSET Digital Library during this 2020-2021 academic year.

All requests will be considered, however, we have limited access to the digital library, so priority will be given to students intending to enter a high-need credential program (Special Education, Mathematics, Science, or World Languages) and to those who intend to take these exams during the 2020-2021 academic year in order to meet credential program admission deadlines.

Exploring Critical Issues in Education: How Do You Survive A Pandemic? These Women Have Lessons For Us All

CSUF

Women often bear a heavier burden at times of crisis. Yet they draw on their inner strength to survive — and thrive. NPR photographed and interviewed 19 women over 3 weeks. Here are their stories.
