ALL BLACK LIVES MATTER!!

We, the Center for Careers in Teaching and the College of Education, stand in solidarity with the movement for Black Lives Matter. It is not enough to be non-racist; we must commit ourselves to being anti-racist.

"The only way to undo racism is to consistently identify it and describe it—and then dismantle it."

— Ibram X. Kendi

Events and Upcoming Deadlines

Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, we understand students may have difficulty completing the admissions requirements for our credential programs.

Regardless, we want to encourage you to apply to our programs!

Please contact us if you would like to learn more!

Would you like to join our mailing list? Please visit bit.ly/CCT_Interest to receive our monthly newsletter.

Welcome to Fall 2020! The Center for Careers in Teaching is operating virtually and here to support you! Although we are virtual, we are still offering academic advising, answering all of your phone calls, and replying back to your emails. We look forward to hearing from each and every one of you this semester!

Exploring Critical Issues in Education:

How Some Educators are Teaching Anti-Racism to the Youngest Students

Early educator and Woke Kindergarten founder Akiea Gross does a read aloud to their audience of "Mr. Tiger Goes Wild" by Peter Brown. In the read aloud Gross talks about respectability politics and liberation for all children, particularly those who are Black, Indigenous, People of Color, Queer & Trans.
