The Center Is Open!

We are excited to announce that the Center will be open again starting Thursday, September 30th! Per Presidential Directive 22, masks will be required indoors, regardless of vaccination status. As a reminder, printing is available but we ask that you bring your own paper. Additionally, food will not be allowed in the Center and we will not be providing the use of the fridge or microwave. We apologize for any inconvenience this causes at this time.

Please continue to make advising appointments through TitanNet. Spring 2022 registration is coming so make your appointment soon!

We have a full semester of events, including Titan Future Teachers and Men of Color in Education programming. We are still hosting information sessions to answer questions about the changes to the basic skills requirement and subject matter competency. Please continue reading for all the updates and upcoming events.

We hope to see you at our events! Have a great semester!
