PROSPECTIVE MULTIPLE SUBJECT TEACHER CANDIDATES
Teacher Recruitment Project Scholarship
$1500 scholarships available this semester!

Do you have strength in math and/or science? The Teacher Recruitment Project provides information and funds to support Multiple Subject Credential Program candidates in adding an authorization to teach math or science in middle school. This year we anticipate awarding four to six $1500 scholarships (contingent on funding) to students targeting Spring 2020 or Fall 2020 admission to the Multiple Subject Credential Program.

Qualifications:
- Currently enrolled at CSUF (2019-2020 academic year)
- Acceptance into the Multiple Subject Credential Program for Spring 2020 or Fall 2020
- Passing score on one of the following CSET exams*
  - Math 211
  - Math 212
    See information about these tests here: https://www.ctcexams.nesinc.com/TestView.aspx?f=HTML_FRAG/CA_CSET212_TestPage.html
  - Science 215
- Completion of scholarship interest form (see below)

*Free CSET math or science study materials are available to students who apply for the scholarship.

Amount: $1500 [Note: If you are receiving any form of financial aid, we encourage you to contact CSUF’s Financial Aid Office to determine the possible impact of this scholarship on your aid.]

Process:
- Immediately complete this form indicating your interest: https://tinyurl.com/TRPScholarship
- Submit documentation of a passing score on one or more of the CSETs listed above to Dr. Hallie Yopp Slowik at hyopp@fullerton.edu when received.
- Submit documentation of acceptance into CSUF’s multiple subject credential program to Dr. Hallie Yopp Slowik at hyopp@fullerton.edu when received.
- Scholarships will be awarded on a first come, first served basis to qualifying individuals.
