

MENTOR TEACHER STIPENDS

Mentor teachers are provided a small stipend by the University for their work with student teachers. They receive $125 for 5 weeks and $250 for 8 weeks of student teaching. Mentor teachers do not receive a stipend for fieldwork. The stipend is included in one of your paychecks through the district several months after the support has been given. If you have questions concerning the payment, always check with your own payroll first.