Reading and Literacy Leadership Specialist Credential (2010)

Institution	CSU Fullerton
Date of initial review	June, 2015
Subsequent dates of review	July 1, 2015

List the 4-6 key assessments identified in the Biennial Report for this credential program:
Course grades/Key Assignments(RLAA & RLLSC); Capstone Assessment (RLAA); Capstone Assessment (RLLSC); Diversity Assignment (RLLSC); CSU Mid-Point Survey (RLAA); CSU Exit Survey (RLLSC)

General Comments:
The program is comprehensive, well developed and well written. It provides multiple fieldwork experiences for candidates and offers a well-rounded curriculum. However, it was unclear if the entire program is hybrid/online or if any classes are offered solely face-to-face at a campus site. This should be addressed in the Program Summary. Thank you for highlighting the information.

*Status	Standard
More Information Needed Preliminarily Aligned	1: Program Design, Rationale, and Coordination 1.1 Provide program philosophy and purpose/rationale 1.2 Summarize major activities 1.3 Provide course schedule and timeline for assessments. Describe field experiences 1.4 Describe admission, advising, program evaluation and improvement (through surveys, faculty meetings, school of ed evaluation). Describe coordination and communication with public schools for field experiences: mentors, supervisors, clinical experiences, how candidates choose who they will work with, etc. Questions, Comments, Additional Information Needed: You have provided well planned Field Experiences for candidates at two different levels. It appears that it is the responsibility of the candidate to procure their own tutees. However, reviewers could not locate a plan for candidates who do not have access to students at their own school sites. Further clarification is needed. See p. 42 of Program Assessment document.
